PRESS RELEASE

IMMOBEL inaugurates its new offices in the centre of Brussels.

Prime Minister Herman Van Rompuy has inaugurated Immobel's new offices on Wednesday 22nd April.

The new offices are located on Place Poelaert, at no. 58 Rue de la Regence. The new building offers numerous advantages:

- a better accessibility ;
- proximity to public transport ;
- a modern infrastructure with the latest technologies ;
- a prime location.

Gaëtan Piret, Chief Executive Officer : “This new location illustrates Immobel's new ambitions and its new image. Our projects are ambitious on many levels, such as urbanism, ecology and urban integration. All the initiatives taken the past months, including the relocation of our offices, confirm Immobel's vision of the future.”
